

Homeschool Days Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What are Homeschool Days at the Scott Family Amazeum?

A: Homeschool Days are an opportunity for homeschool families to play and explore at the Scott Family Amazeum or virtually together. Homeschool Days are a great opportunity to network and mingle with other homeschoolers while you are learning and making discoveries. On these special days, homeschoolers are the only groups who can schedule an Unfield Trip, allowing easier access to the exhibits.

Q: When are in-person Homeschool Days at the Scott Family Amazeum?

A: Homeschool Days will occur on August 23, 2021, December 1, 2021, and March 2, 2022 from 10am-5pm (advanced tickets required).

Q: When are Virtual Homeschool Days?

A: Virtual Homeschool Days will occur on August 24, 2021, December 2, 2021, and March 3, 2022. Advanced registration and payment is required. The fee is $5.00 per family to register per program. Each family will receive a list of supplies to gather prior to the call and link to the virtual call. Register for one or both activities!

Q: Will face coverings be required during in-person Homeschool Days?

A: The health, safety and well-being of our members, guests and team is our priority. We request that people who have yet to be vaccinated over age 2 wear face coverings inside the museum. We invite all guests to wear face coverings at their discretion and recommend them for all unvaccinated people over age 2. Amazeum team is required to wear masks inside the museum.

Q: What is the fee for attending Homeschool Days at the Amazeum?

A: The fee for Homeschool Days is based upon how you plan to attend. If you are visiting as a family or a group of less than 20 people, the fee is our regular admission rate. If you are an Amazeum member, you are welcome to use your membership for those listed on your membership to attend Homeschool Days. If you have a group of 20 or more paying people, you can reserve an Unfield Trip in advance to receive a reduced rate. Virtual Homeschool Days are $5.00 per family per program.

Q: Do I need to pre-register if I plan to attend Homeschool Days?

A: Yes, all guests will need to reserve tickets in advance. Registration for in-person Homeschool Days is available by families reserving tickets online. Groups of 20 or more paying people interested in receiving a discounted rate should pre-register as an Unfield Trip by contacting the Amazeum Reservations Specialist at 479-696-9280 option 5 or reservations@amazeum.org. Virtual Homeschool Day registration is available online.

New safety requirements are in place to provide a safe and healthy learning experience for groups and guests in the museum. Capacity is limited and guests are asked to be smart and play 6 feet apart. Groups will not be able to bring lunches into the museum during Unfield Trips.

Q: Can I drop my child off at the Amazeum during Homeschool Days?

A: The Amazeum requires students to be accompanied by an adult at all times. The adult should be age 18 years or older. A minimum of one adult is required for every 10 students.

Q: Will there be special programming going on during in-person Homeschool Days?

A: Homeschool Days are a free flow experience allowing students and adults the opportunity to explore the areas of most interest at their own pace. Homeschool Days have special themed Pop-up activities throughout the day for families to explore. Homeschool Days do not include a guided tour or focused workshop. Homeschoolers will receive a special 20% discount in Curiosity Corner museum store at Amazeum and online. Use this discount to stock up on fun, educational materials to enhance your learning at home! And the discount is available for virtual and in-person Homeschool Day participants!

Q: Who qualifies to attend Homeschool Days?

A: Any student receiving academic instruction at home is welcome to attend Homeschool Days. The Amazeum requires students to be accompanied by an adult at all times. The adult should be age 18 years or older. A minimum of one adult is required for every 10 students.

Q: Do I need to show proof of homeschooling in order to attend?

A: Proof of homeschooling is not required to attend Homeschool Days.

Q: My family can't get to the Amazeum until the afternoon. Will we miss out on the fun?

A: No! In-person Homeschool Days continue throughout the entire day.

Q: I can't make it to Homeschool Days. What are my options?

A: If you are unable to visit during Homeschool Days, we encourage you to visit on another day that accommodates your schedule. Check our website for hours of operation. For larger groups of homeschoolers interested in visiting together, please contact the Amazeum Reservations Specialist at 479-268-4542 or reservations@amazeum.org to schedule an Unfield Trip.

Q: What resources are available to help my family prepare for Homeschool Day?

A: The Amazeum website has several resources available to help you prepare for your visit. Get a sneak peek at the Amazeum exhibits and check out some pre-visit activities, connections to standards, and other educational resources. Be sure to sign up for the homeschool list on our newsletter options. We will send you a newsletter with information that is relevant to homeschool. If you have additional questions, feel free to email us at homeschoolresources@amazeum.org.

Q: What else is the Amazeum planning for Homeschoolers?

A: Check out our new series, Homeschool Adventures. In this child drop-off program, each weekly experience explores concepts of STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math) through creative, hands-on explorations. During each series, we scaffold our adventures from week to week, adding a deep-dive, interactive component/experience to your homeschool curriculum. Advanced registration and payment are required. Please visit amazeum.org for more information and program dates.

Want more Amazeum at home? Check out our Amazeum You videos to continue your STEAM explorations that can easily be done with materials found at home.

Q: I'd like more information about future camps and programs. Where can I learn more and who should I contact?

A: You can learn more on our website in the 'Programs' menu by selecting 'Homeschool' or please contact Ashlee Bailey, Educational Programs Manager, at abailey@amazeum.org or 479-696-9280 ext. 211
