

Explore: Paper Circuits

What is the Explore: Paper Circuits Unfield Trip?

Use this kit to explore simple or complex circuitry on paper! You can light up the room with the included template or create your own cards, cardboard creations, or murals.

What is included in the Explore: Paper Circuits kit?

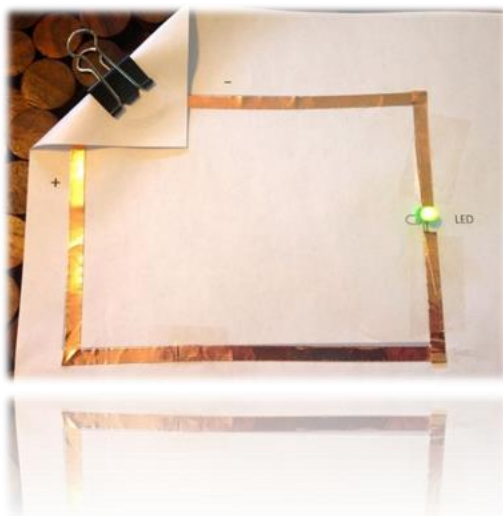

Each Paper Circuits classroom bundle come in a large container and includes the following materials: copper tape, LEDs, coin cell batteries, popsicle sticks, clear tape, templates, cardstock and activity guides. Most of the supplies needed for the activity are provided in the kit.

Which grade level is Explore: Paper Circuits designed for?

Paper Circuits is great for 2nd-8th grades as you test out conductivity, learn the components of a circuit, and build switches.

What is the video call check-in with the Amazeum team?

An Amazeum team member will spend time leading, coaching, and facilitating this activity with you and your students through a video call.

How do I reserve Explore: Paper Circuits for my students?

Make your reservation for an Explore Unfield Trip today! Fill out the interest form on our website, and an Amazeum team member will contact you within two business days after you submit the form. If you have questions, you can call 479-696-9280 opt. 5, or email reservations@amazeum.org.

Ready to start exploring Paper Circuits?

Check out this Paper Circuits activity guide and this Paper Circuits activity video for a sneak peek of Explore: Paper Circuits.