

Discover Amazing

Founded on the principle that a curious and creative community learns together, the Scott Family Amazeum ignites the imagination of children and families through interactive science, technology, engineering, art and math experiences. Open since July 2015, the Amazeum welcomes guests from 2 to 102 to explore, discover, create and learn.

Explore. Discover.
Create. Learn.

Curiosity. Creativity. Community.

The Scott Family Amazeum's interactive exhibits and unique "pop-up" activities - inspired by the landscape, culture, and innovative spirit of the region - enable discovery and learning through play.

A 35-foot climbable tree canopy rises above the Nature Valley Water Amazeums, Weather and Nature area, an Ozark Cave and authentic Homestead Cabin. In General Mills Lift, Load and Haul, and the Market inspired by Walmart, active imaginations lead to curious creations and deep investigations. There's even a real semi-truck parked in front of the market.

In the Nickelodeon PlayLab, Hershey's Lab, 3M Tinkering Hub, and Art Studio, it's all about hands-on, messy, creative fun. And that's just what's inside!

Outside the Amazeum, an acre of outdoor PlayScape invites kids to explore a unique SpaceNet Climber, nature discovery area, and provides ample open space for a family picnic or some free-range fun. Additionally, the Amazeum hosts traveling exhibits from museums throughout the country.

No day is the same at the Scott Family Amazeum. Every day is amazing.
